January Meeting · Wednesday, January 16 · 9:00AM

San Mateo Garden Center, 650 Parkside Way, San Mateo

The President's Message

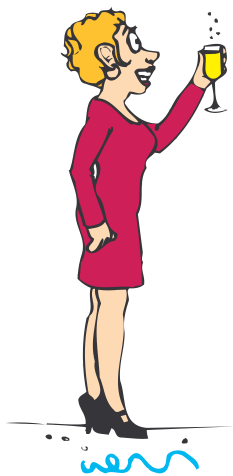

Happy 2008! It's that time of year when people take stock and make resolutions. Actually, I don't do the resolutions thing. I find that I don't have the attention span to keep up with something for a whole year. Also, I'm a really good procrastinator and having another list of things to do in December just doesn't excite me either.

Back in early November I received an e-mail from a quilting buddy who said "pick three things you want to get done by the end of the year." He shared his list and I decided to come up with my own. It worked well and I did manage to send my Christmas cards out before Christmas!

So here is my challenge to you. Pick three quilty things you'd like to accomplish in the next few months. Here's my list: take some quilting classes; make at least one thing for the guild boutique; finish a quilt for the guild show. Write up your own list and see how you do. I'll let you know how things go for me.

See you at the January meeting!

—Marcella Peek

New Year!*

This Month: Marcia Stein

"Destinations: Travel-Inspired Quilts"

Marcia Stein will be presenting slides of large-scale pictorial quilts under the title "Destinations: Travel-Inspired Quilts." We will journey with her to Santa Fe, Italy, England, and the South of France. She will also have a trunk show.

—Cece Montgomery, Programs

February 20, 7PM—Andi Perejda will be doing a trunk show plus slides on quilt designs. Besides doing lectures and workshops, she is an NQA-Certified quilt judge. Her work includes traditional as well as artistic designs. She has appeared on Simply Quilts with her "Circle of Illusion."

One-Time Only Opportunity!

For the first time in years, there will be a Tie-In on a Saturday! At your request, Michelle and I will hold a Tie-In on Saturday, January 26. If you've always wanted to participate in our group quilting marathon to make quilts for charity, this is your chance.

We'll be at Hope Lutheran Church, 600 - 42nd Avenue, San Mateo (just off Alameda de las Pulgas) from 9:00AM-3:30PM. There are quilts in every stage of completion, from pieced tops to quilts ready for tying and a label.

Bring your sewing supplies, sewing machine if you can, and a lunch if you can be there at noon. We have lots of supplies also. We'll put the coffee pot on and share some snacks.

This will be the only Saturday Tie-In this year, so don't miss out. Put the date on your calendar right now before you forget. We're looking forward to seeing you there.

—Margaret Ann Niven and Michelle Graham

P.S. While you have your calendar out, the rest of the dates for the year are April 24, July 24, and September 25.

The January Board Meeting will convene at the San Mateo Garden Center immediately following the General Meeting.

Black Cat Quilts

www.blackcatquilts.com

Here's a comfortable, warm and cozy quilt store located in an active small business neighborhood. Black Cat Quilts, opened in 1996 by owner Gretchen Nelson, carries over 2,000 bolts of fabric in a broad selection of contemporaries, traditionals, batiks, Asian prints, hand-painted and hand-dyed fabrics, and novelty and juvenile prints. They have a good selection of batting and notions, and also carry a book collection from major publishers covering all areas of quilting. Gretchen and her knowledgeable staff are always available for assistance in making selections, from design questions to finishing details. Just ask!

Each year, Black Cat Quilts offers more than 200 classes taught by highly experienced, expert teachers (including our own Marcella Peek!). The schedule includes something for everyone—absolute beginners, kids, fairly new quilters, and experienced quilters. The upper walls are lined with gorgeous quilts that are samples of classes provided by the teachers, samples of patterns offered, and raffle quilts made by various Bay Area guilds.

Gretchen is a fourth-generation retailer whose family created Nelson Mercantile Company in Argyle, Wisconsin, a general store operated successively by her great-grandfather, grandfather, and father. Gretchen's mom, Jeannine Nelson, a devoted 25-year quilter, makes an annual six-week visit from Wisconsin and works every day at the Black Cat. Jeannine has a gift for helping customers with color coordination and fabric selection.

Gretchen started quilting in 1992 and fell in love with it. In '94 she felt she needed a more creative, fun and engaging career than providing marketing services in the environmental engineering field, and using her MBA began researching and planning her quilt store.

In business for eleven years, she's very happy with her choice. We asked what Gretchen liked best about her business, and she said, "I love all the people I meet, and working with them. As a customer once told me, 'This is more than just a store, it's a community.'"

Gretchen's concern? "Getting people to understand that it's easy to get here!" Black Cat is located at the southern end of SF, so it's an easy find for our San Mateo County quilters. Take 280 to 19th Avenue, 19th to Ocean Avenue; hang a right on Ocean and it's just a scant 2 blocks away on the left-hand side (just a few blocks north of Stonestown Galleria).

Once you stop by, you'll wonder what took you so long! □

Winter Challenge

Thanks to all who participated in the holiday Winter Challenge. The items will be on display at the Burlingame Library on Primrose Avenue from January 3 through the end of February.

Hope you'll get a chance to see them. I plan to return all of the items at the March PQ meeting.

Thank you,

—Lori Atwood

One Quilter's Opinion

Here's another year, fresh and new. What does this mean? Some people make resolutions and start over one more time, trying to change all the things they want to change in their lives. Some of us make time to evaluate goals and how much progress we made last year.

What will I do to make this the best year ever? I'm going to smile more and be sweet to everyone—especially the people I think it will be hardest with. I'm going to forgive everyone I need to, starting with myself. I'm going to cry before it's a really bad time to. I'm going to leave earlier and show up on time more. I'm going to stop feeling guilty about taking time with my DH (Dear Husband) to just have fun.

I'm going to sew more, and not just do mending. I am going to paint and read and sew with the kids in my life. I'm going to give away and throw away a lot of stuff. I'm going to make a list of all the people and things for which I'm thankful. I'm going to tell the people in my life I love and appreciate them, while they're still around to tell. (You never know when there won't be another chance.) I'm going to laugh. I hear that's really healthy.

And I'm going to send a Christmas card to all the people I didn't hear from this year with my new address. Or maybe a change of address card. Maybe next month... Perhaps I should put something about not procrastinating on that list.

Happy quilting!

—Mary Brown

Peninsula Quilters General Meeting December 19, 2007 San Mateo Garden Center

President Marcella Peek called the meeting to order at 7:03PM.

Minutes: stand approved as printed.

Treasurer's Report: Joanne Dunbar reported the following;

Beginning Balance 11/1/07	$12,716.58
Income:	915.50
Expense:	1,169.91
Ending Balance 11/30/07	12,462.17
Vanguard Money Market 11/30/07	$22,915.83

Correspondence Report: Loraine Strong reported the following cards were sent: Beth Beach, thank you for a donated quilt frame; Gale Divver, sympathy card for the death of her mother; Mary Lazarus, sympathy card for the death of her mother; Julie Murphy (Laurel Leaf), sympathy card for the death of her father. We received: Thank you from Lyn Mann for our enthusiastic reception of her trunk show and workshop; thank you from San Jose Museum of Quilts and Textiles for our $1,000 donation; thank you from Scroungers' Center for Reusable Art Parts for donation.

Announcements: Marcella Peek said that due to a printing error in the 2008 Guild Roster, pages 3 and 4 were identical. The information that should be on page 3 has been reprinted as "stick-on" pages, and are available on the membership table. • Marcella announced that a clipboard was being sent around for those interested in signing up to form an Auction Committee. At present there is no auction coordinator, no committee and subsequently, no auction planned until someone steps up to the plate.

• Carol Stapleton announced there are sign-ups stations around the room for members to indicate interest in making specific items for the Quilt Show Boutique. All boutique items are to be made from scraps. Margaret Conti has joined her as assistant chairperson "cheerleader." • Margie Bajurin said that the deadline for the January Gazette is December 27. • Carole Johnson clarified the required neonatal quilt dimensions as a minimum of 20 inches and a maximum of 30 inches per side.

• Kathleen Davenport and Maureen Krantz reviewed pocket dimensions for Guild Aprons (sample modeled by Debra Oliver). The ideal finished size is 8" with two (2) matching/complementary for each apron; and, if available, a 4 1/2" square can be used on the top of the apron. They have backing for the pockets and batting. • Finola Bazzanella has provided information for a friendship block. • Debra Oliver announced that Caryl Kirkup had provided the large array of books for everyone to enjoy and take home.

Programs: Cece Montgomery said she now has a co-chair, Barbara Hall, and reviewed plans for our January meeting.

Tie-In: Margaret Ann Niven announced that a tie-in is scheduled for Saturday, January 26, to allow all those unable to participate during the weekdays to come and join in on the fun. It will be held at the Hope Lutheran Church again, 600 West 42nd Ave., San Mateo, 9:30AM-3:30PM.

Membership: Finola Bazzanella said there were 80 members and 2 guests in attendance. Door Prizes were given to Jerry Sullivan (Omnigridd quilters carry bag) and Carol Stapleton (a box of rayon embroidery thread). Door prizes were provided by our new affiliate, The Sewing Machine Place in Millbrae.

Library: Rosemary Hamerton-Kelly advised that the Library was open only for returns tonight.

Book Raffle: Barbara Crawford said there would be none tonight.

Show and Tell: The following quilts were shown: Joanne Colgate, Cube in the Corner; Phyllis Obley, Christmas Delight; Phyllis Obley & Joanne Dunbar, Christmas Stockings, Hilda's Red Quilt (Friendship Star Design); Ellen Phillips, Sweetheart Quilt; Barbara Crawford, Late Winter; Angie Birkeland, Fly Fishing, Duck Hunter's Delight, Christmas Tree; Tricia Sims, Knights of the Round Table; Lisa Allard, Jenny's Wedding Quilt; Martha Helseth, Sunflowers, Red Cross; Jeri Sullivan, Red, Black and White Between Friends, White, Red & Blue Crazy Blooms; Mavourneen Lopez, Celtic Knot Appliqué (for her son); Maura Jones, Debbie Fields Panel; Louise Childers, Michelle Graham & Joanne Dunbar, Landscape Wall Hanging; Loraine Strong, Quilt Square Tote Bag; Cece Montgomery, Poppy; Debbie O'Neil, Placemat Purse, Dollie, Flannel Rag Quilt; Phyllis Bismanovsky, Floral; Pernille Gutschick, Peggy's Garden, Poinsettia on Steroids; Michelle Graham & Louise Childers, Quilt Diva Wall Hanging .

Marcella Peek adjourned the meeting at 8:15PM—Let the Party Begin!

*Respectfully submitted,
—Recording Secretary*

New Year's Resolutions

For those of you who make New Year's resolutions (unlike Marcella), you may find the following guidelines useful:

- I WILL NOT stuff fabric in every available crevice in my house.
- I WILL finish one project before I start on the next.
- I WILL NOT let my fabric stash room become a hard-hat area.
- I WILL NOT turn my kitchen/dining room table into a permanent cutting table.
- I WILL NOT open a separate bank account and credit card to hide my fabric purchases from my husband/significant other.
- I WILL NOT attend quilt shows solely to visit the vendor malls.
- I DO NOT have to use every single Beverly's or JoAnn's 40% off coupon.
- I WILL ONLY shop sales if there is something I absolutely need.
- I WILL NOT stay up all night quilting.
- I WILL NOT let my quilting distract me from cleaning house and making dinner.
- I WILL NOT buy every quilt book and quilt magazine known to humankind.
- I WILL NOT disguise my uncut fabric lengths as curtains, sheets, bedspreads, tablecloths or square dancing skirts.
- I WILL wash, measure, label, iron, fold and organize every piece of fabric in my stash.
- I WILL NOT call in sick to attend a quilting class.
- I WILL NOT make promises that I cannot keep.

2008 Quilt Show News

Show Dates: May 31 (10-6PM) and June 1 (10-5PM)
Foster City Art and Wine Festival, Foster City Recreation Center & William Walker Senior Center

Mission Statement: Our mission is to promote the Peninsula Quilters' Guild and its activities. Our focus is to enhance the enjoyment of all members and educate the public about quilting. We will provide a venue for guild members to display their quilts, and will provide fund-raising opportunities for the Guild's operating budget.

I need your help! I have gotten so excited about the Quilt Show Boutique that I've been making item after item. I finish one thing and think, "What can I make next?" Someone better stop me or there will be nothing left for anyone else to make.

This year, we have decided to limit our merchandise to those things that sold well or reasonably well at our last quilt show and, maybe, a few things we think should sell. Further, we will be limiting the number of each item so that we don't get too many of any one thing. At the December meeting, I asked all of you to start signing up to make specific items so that we will have a good idea of what to expect. I will have the sign up sheets at the meetings, so come see me during the breaks. We are looking for things like placemats, tote bags, napkins, eyeglass/camera/cell phone cases, pincushions, aprons, juvenile quilts, and juvenile pillow cases among other items.

Look at your scraps and your orphan blocks as a starting point. A 6¹/₂" orphan block magically becomes a potholder when you put some Teflon backing and binding on it. Likewise, a 9" or 12" orphan block becomes a trivet by adding the Teflon and binding. There is such a satisfying feeling from using some of those pesky scraps. Try it! You'll like it. And you won't have to spend any money to make something wonderful!

We will have two, maybe three, workshops where we can get together to make things for the boutique and we will sew, talk, and laugh. Stay tuned!

*Ms. Rah-rah-sis-boom-bah
aka Carol Stapleton*

Membership Reminders

For those members who have not yet picked up a Membership Packet and Correction Page, they will be on the membership table at the next general meeting on January 16th.

If you would prefer to have it mailed to you, email or call Finola Bazzanella and send her $1.50.

Also, a reminder to everyone to contact Finola in writing for any changes in your information over the year such as address, email, phone, etc.

Reminder: Children's Quilt Show Request

In planning ahead for the Children's Quilt Show that will be part of our guild show in May/June, we need your help.

At the last show we sold over four hundred 6-inch fabric squares at 25¢ each. If you could cut more squares for us we'd be in good shape by May. We need fun fabric, novelty, brights, juveniles – anything you think kids would like.

Any questions, call Karen Cutter at 591-6190. Thanks!

Barn Quilts Blanket State

From the December 5, 2007 Journal-Times (Grayson, KY): "Whether it's due to nostalgia, pride of place or the desire to bring tourism dollars into the state, barn owners across Kentucky are blanketing their buildings with quilt blocks as part of the burgeoning Kentucky Quilt Trails." To read the rest of this very interesting story, go to http://www.journal-times.com/local/local_story_340101404.html.

PQ member Carole Johnson tells us that her husband is from Grayson, Kentucky (Carter County), where this all started. "While we were in Kentucky a couple of weeks ago, this story ran in the local newspaper. I saw some of the barn quilts and they are very impressive." Carole says that at the end of the newspaper article there is a website, www.kentuckyquilttrail.org that gives more information and some photos.
